

A Walking Guide To Historic Savannah

- 1 River St & Bay St - The focus of the tourist district along the Savannah River. Includes a number of good eateries like The Cotton Exchange Seafood Grill & Tavern, Barracuda Bob's Bar and Grill, Bernie's Oyster House
- 2 Savannah City Market - The Olde Pink House Restaurant, Vic's On the River, Jazz'd Tapas Bar, Paula Dean's The Lady and Sons
- 3 Chippewa Square - one of the most known squares in all of Savannah, right in the center of everything. There's a lot to see and do around the square, from plays to beautiful architecture and the Forrest Gump Bench.
- 5 SCAD Savannah College of Art & Design - SCAD has a number of venues around historic Savannah from the college itself to their gallery and a theater.
- 4 Forsyth Park - This park is the centerpiece of Savannah's parks. Notice the geometric layout of the parks north of Forsyth Park.
- 6 S.C.A.D - The Savannah College of Art & Design
- 6 Six Pence Pub - Savannah has more than its share of bars, pubs and cafes with a reputation for its night life.
- 7 Andrew Low House - 1850's historic house owned by Andrew Low is just one of a dozen historic home open to the public for tours in Savannah. The Low house is beautifully preserved with rooms filled with a fantastic collection of furniture and artwork. It was home to Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scouts of America.

